

THE GREAT WENCHOSTER BIBLE

Luke 22: 24-30

24. And there was also a strife among them and much jostling, which of them should be accounted the greatest, and who should be central in the sketches and portraits that were being made of them by the street artists.
25. And He said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. And those who desire prominence in oils and pastels wash their robes and comb their hair.
26. But ye shall not be so, for verily I say unto you, your locks are unwashed and your robes travel-stained, and thou art not a pretty picture: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he who is without blemish give salve to the spotty; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.
27. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat and taste the roast and vegetables and the sauces, or he that serveth the platters and tureens and condiments? is not he that sitteth at meat and chomp with their teeth and lick their lips of the juices? but I am among you as he that serveth, and doth bring forth fine meats and wines and trays of figs and pomegranates.
28. Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations, oh yes, and thou knowest with what ye are tempted, especially you, son of Tolmai.
29. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me, and a new commonwealth of many peoples and tribes and nations, even the Welsh,
30. That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and afterwards sit on thrones, for the figs doth create much wind, and seated thereon ye may judge the twelve tribes of Israel, and peoples as yet unknown that dwelleth in mountains and doth keep many sheep.
