

THE GREAT WENCHOSTER BIBLE

Malachi 4: 1-3

1. For, behold, verily and forsooth, look ye and be awake; as surely as sunrise follows the moon the day cometh, and it shall be hot, for that day shall burn as an oven, even one turned up to an high temperature so that food may be roasted, and the potatoes crispy, but not the crackling, for that food is denied thee and is suitable only for the Gentiles. And all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, have stiff necks and other parts, and eat of the scratchings, especially the porky ones referred to already, not to mention the pigs in blankets, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, even unto cinders and be as Sodom and Gomorrah, and it shall leave them neither root nor branch nor twigs nor the nice crispy bits that can be picked off the tin.
2. But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings, and with secret recipes for the sauces, and ye shall go forth, with exceedingly large horns, and grow up as calves of the stall or rams of the fold or stallions of the stable.
3. And ye shall tread down the wicked and all who belong to naughtiness; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet (so long as thou wearest stout shoes and burn not your toes on the hot cinders from the oven or barbecue) in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts. And I shall shew thee a miracle called chips. Oh yes!
